Support with your learning

We aim to provide support to help you make the most of your course. If you have difficulties with any aspects of your learning, then we would like to help.

If you have a specific learning difficulty or disability, problems with English and Maths, are deaf or hearing impaired, or missing the essential skills needed to complete your course, our Additional Support team are on hand to give you assistance whenever you need it.

Our committed team can provide you with:

- the skills you need to make your assignments fantastic
- specialist equipment, adapted course material and other resources, including an Assistive Technology Centre which has specialist equipment and software designed to make your learning experience as productive as possible
- special exam arrangements if required
- support with accessing the College
- dyslexia, hearing and visual support specialists.

For further information call our Additional Support Adviser on 01234 291905.
